

Kennerlys to host Gala Dinner with Guest Speaker, Janine Allis, Founder of Boost Juice

Janine will share her experience and insights on how she built a multi-million dollar business and brand

Perth, 14 February, 2012 — Kennerlys, a dedicated provider of taxation, superannuation and enterprise development services, announced today that Janine Allis, the Founder of Boost Juice, and global entrepreneur, will be the guest speaker at the Kennerlys 2012 Gala Dinner.

The event will provide an evening of inspiration, knowledge and fun for Kennerlys clients, partners and business associates as Janine shares her experience and insights on how she turned a dream into the biggest juice and smoothie company in the southern hemisphere and made Boost Juice a globally recognised brand.

From a single Adelaide store in 2000, Boost Juice now has over 187 outlets nationwide, over 50 international stores, and a raft of awards and achievements including being ranked seventh on BRW's list of fastest growing businesses in 2012.

"We are always looking at inspirational and fun ways to help our clients grow their businesses and realise their dreams, and our Gala Dinner is one way we do this," said Lejo Ouwendyk, Managing Director, Kennerlys. "It's an absolute honour to have Janine Allis join us for the 2012 event to share her phenomenal success story and give the audience tips for 'juicing up' their own business."

Additional guest speakers include Mr. John Nicolau, Chief Economist of WA Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and Lejo Ouwendyk from Kennerlys.

The Kennerlys 2012 Gala Dinner will be held at Frasers State Reception Centre in Kings Park, Perth on Wednesday 23 May, 2012 at 7.00pm. Tickets are $150 each.
