Kennerlys a Finalist for 2012 Telstra Australian Business Award

In addition, Kennerlys Hosts Annual Gala Dinner and MD to participate in Vinnies CEO Sleepout

Perth, 20 June 2012 — Western Australian owned and operated Certified Practising Accounting firm Kennerlys has been announced as a finalist for the 'MYOB Small Business Award' Category in the 2012 Telstra Australian Business Awards.

Managing Director Lejo Ouwendyk said, "It's great to see the hard work and recent successes at Kennerlys being recognised within the business community. Our team has always been focused on getting the highest levels of customer satisfaction as their priority, and this nomination reflects that."

The Winners of the Telstra Western Australian Business Awards will be announced at the Hyatt Regency Perth, on 17 July 2012.

Kennerlys Gala Dinner attracts rave reviews

On 23 May 2012, Kennerlys hosted a Gala dinner with guest speaker, Janine Allis, founder of Boost Juice. Guests enjoyed hearing from Janine about how she grew her business to become a multi-million dollar enterprise. Additional guest speakers included Mr John Nicolau, Chief economist of the WA Chamber of Commerce, and Kennerlys MD Lejo Ouwendyk. Guests commented on the inspirational presentations, and how much they enjoyed the atmosphere of the event. Part proceeds were donated to HeartKids.

Roughing it for a Reason – Vinnies CEO Sleepout

As part of Kennerlys commitment to the community and charity, MD Lejo Ouwendyk will be taking part in the Vinnies CEO Sleepout again this year, on Thursday 16 June 2012. This event invites CEOs and senior business and community leaders to rise to the challenge and experience what it is like to be homeless for one night in winter and help the St Vincent de Paul Society raise awareness of the real facts of homelessness.
